

Full Service Historic Preservation Consultant

Schneider Historic Preservation LLC provides a full range of historic preservation consulting services. With more than twenty-seven years of professional historic preservation experience, David B. Schneider has successfully completed a diverse range of projects for both private and public sector clients in ten states, specializing in community preservation planning, design review in historic districts, historic resource documentation, and the certification of projects for historic rehabilitation tax credits.

A Client-Oriented Approach

Historic preservation projects often involve the varied interests of clients, regulatory agencies, advocacy groups, and the general public. Having worked extensively in both the nonprofit and for-profit sectors, Mr. Schneider is an effective advocate for his clients' interests and is skilled at finding creative and practical solutions for complicated projects.

Experience

Mr. Schneider is the former Executive Director of the Historic Beaufort Foundation in Beaufort, South Carolina (1995-1999); the Historic Preservation Trust of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (1990-1995); and the Berkeley County (South Carolina) Historical Society Museum (1989-1990). Prior to 1989, Mr. Schneider was a historic preservation consultant based in Charleston, South Carolina and worked in both real estate and construction. He holds a Master of Arts degree in Historic Preservation from Middle Tennessee State University and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Georgia.

Active in numerous professional and community organizations, he currently serves as vice-chairman of the City of Anniston Historic Preservation Commission and he is a former Board member for the Alabama Trust for Historic Preservation. Mr. Schneider is also a former Vice President for Southeast Capital Investments, Inc., a regional commercial real estate development and brokerage company.

Advocacy

SHP provides a variety of advocacy services to both the public and private sectors. Mr. Schneider's background includes rural and urban preservation issues and he has been involved in community efforts to manage suburban sprawl. Among his many activities was the successful nomination of Lancaster County, PA to the World Monuments Watch list.

Downtown Ensley, Alabama

Liles Bld., Anniston, AL

Lancaster Press, Lancaster PA

Ensley, Alabama

Ensley, Alabama • Client: City of Birmingham

SHP is currently completing a historic resource survey and National Register nomination for the downtown section of Ensley. Once the centerpiece of Birmingham's iron and steel industry, Ensley's economic fortunes declined with the closure of its factories in the 1970s. The community is hoping to stimulate revitalization by qualifying local properties to utilize federal rehabilitation tax credits and by promoting the area's rich history.

Historic Rehabilitation Tax Credit Projects

Liles Building, Anniston, AL • Client: WaterMark Tower, LLC

Lancaster Press Building, Lancaster, PA • Client: Tippetts Weaver Architects

SHP is currently serving as the historic preservation consultant to several projects involving the use of federal rehabilitation tax credits. WaterMark Tower, LLC is seeking to rehabilitate Anniston's first skyscraper that was damaged by fire in 2003 and has remained vacant since that time. In Lancaster, PA, Lancaster Press Partners will adapt the long-vacant Lancaster Press Building into apartments.

Historic Preservation Planning Projects

Sullivan's Island, South Carolina • Client: Town of Sullivan's Island

Traditionally the resort island for the residents of Charleston, rising property values have resulted in the demolition of many of the island's historic resources. SHP has completed historic preservation component of a major revision to the town's planning and zoning ordinances (2003), a National Register Multiple Property Documentation Form and four historic district nominations (2006), and a selected survey of buildings over sixty years old for possible local designation (2007).

Sullivan's Island Multiple Property Nomination, SC

Design Review Guidelines

Huntsville, Alabama • Client: City of Huntsville Historic Preservation Commission

The City of Huntsville's historic districts are exceptional examples of how local historic designation and design review can not only maintain the character of historic neighborhoods but substantially improve property values as well. SHP prepared a set of design guidelines to help the city's historic preservation commission make more consistent decisions and to help promote a broader community understanding about the design review process.

Tyler Hill Historic District, Anniston, AL

Tuscaloosa Urban Renewal Area

Tuscaloosa, Alabama • Client: Almon Associates, Inc.

SHP completed Historical American Buildings Survey Documentation for three city blocks in downtown Tuscaloosa that will be demolished to make way for a new federal courthouse project. The project involved preparation of a narrative history and architectural description of the blocks and their individual buildings, large format and digital photography, and measured streetscape drawings.

Tuscaloosa Urban Renewal Area, Tuscaloosa, AL

Lancaster Floor Plant, Armstrong World Industries

Lancaster, Pennsylvania • Clients: EDC Finance Corporation

SHP coordinated the local, state and federal historic preservation reviews for the demolition of a substantial portion of the 2.6 million square foot Lancaster Floor Plant of Armstrong Cork Company (now AWI). Once the largest factory in the world producing linoleum, the plant was the dominant leader among Lancaster County's expansive and diverse industrial sector for almost a century. Both Franklin and Marshall College and the Lancaster General Hospital will expand onto the site.
